FAYORABLE TO THE DEFENDANT

Judge Edmunds' Liberal Instructions in the Maud Lewis Case.

HAS NO HOPE OF ACQUITTAL

The Jury May Return a Verdict of Manslaughter in the Fourth Degree.

No one sent Maud Lewis any flowers Friorning and she appeared in court empty-handed, clad in the same black gown and turban she has worn since the trial be-

He was a wreck mental, moral and physical, and his whole being showed it. confessed his slavery to the morphine habit by leaving the witness stand at ininject the drug into his system i order that he might keep up under the strain he was under. And this was the

Then followed the reading by Mr. Bishop of a portion of Andrews' testimony before the Coroner in which he had described the strange man he had seen soing out of the front door as he came down the stairs on the night of the murder, in which he said that Maud had cried out when he first saw her, "Oh, I've killed my Pete," and in which he contradicted his testimony in this trial it many minor details.

James Johnson, the official stenographer of the Criminal Court, was put on the stand and while testifying took his own testimony in short hand. He testified to having reported the deposition of Alpert Andrews in Judge Bashaw's office last July. The purpose of the witness' presence on the stand was to identify this transcript, and as Judge Bashaw admitted it as being such he was excused.

Bashaw admitted it as being such he was excused.

Mr. Bishop then read certain portions of it which, to him, seemed in conflict with Andrews' testimony of Thursday, as well as to that of all his previous statements. In sur-rebuttal Judge Bashaw reintroduced the defendant to impeach Reporter Smith. She said that she told Smith that if the Chief of Police and Morrissey's brother would recognize that the statement she would make as untrue she was willing to say it to accommodate the family, because she knew of their enxiety to have him buried from the church.

"That's all," said Judge Bashaw.

"Then you were willing to tell a lie to accommodate her family?" asked Judge Krum severely.

commodate her family?" asked Judge Krum severely.

The woman threw back her head, deflantly, and her eyes flashed fire.

"Yes," she crited loud enough to be heard at the other end of the room while her former words had been in the merest whisper. "Yes, I was willing then and am willing now to do anything to accommodate his family."

Then there came a break. Tears flowed down her cheeks and she left the stand sobbing.

This closed the case so far as the taking of testimony was concerned, and a recess until 12 o'clock was taken to give Judge Edmunds an opportunity to prepare his instructions.

RARE CHANCE FOR A RED-HAIRED MAN

The Offer of a Rich Chicagoan With a Bald Pate.

$500 FOR SUN-TINTED LOCKS

But They Must Be Peeled From the Scalp in Condition for Grafting on the Hairless Head.

This advertisement is signed by Dr. John H. Woodbury, and thereby hangs a tale. There is a man in Chicago who enjoys the phenomenal distinction of being very rich and desiring a head of red hair. He once did have a head of hair that shamed the setting sun with its glory. But now it is gor cago for a new roseate hirsute adorni

He was finally referred to Dr. Woodbury of facial transformation fame. He offered $2,000 and all expenses paid for the afore-said ador-ment. Dr. Woodbury had a numsaid ador ment. Dr. Woodbury had a number of times grafted new hair upon scars produced by surgical operations and burns; but he had never before tried to plant a full head of hair upon a bald cranium. He saw no reason why this experiment should not be successful. The first step was to secure some individual with locks of the requisite hue who would surrender his cranial possession for $500. He thinks that this is the most difficult part of the experiment. The subject, if he offers himself, will not be scalped. A small portion of the scalp, with hair attached, will be removed at a time from different parts of the head. A small spot on the head of the beneficiary of the grafting operation will then be made raw with appropriate instruments. The new piece of scalp will be sewed on the head. The entire surface of the head will not be covered with new grafts. Intervening spaces will be left hairless, but the hear on the grafts will grow over the spots and couceal them from the eya.

When a graft is removed from the $500 subject's head the skin will be sewn over it as far as possible. The operation will take months, and at the end of the time the subject will be in a competent state to rent himself out as a living checker board. But he will not be a dime museum freak very long, because the hair will grow over his baid spots also, and he will have in six months, to the observer, apparently as good and complete a head of hair as he ever exhibited.

The Gevernor of British Guiana Or dered to Take Steps to Held the Disputed Territory.

tiondon, oct. is.—The St. James Gazette this afternoon made some highly important and sensational statements regarding Venezuels, which seem to show that the dispute between that Republic and Great Britain has assumed a very grave aspect. It says that since the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain assumed office as Secretary of State for the colonies, he has paid close personal attention to the question of the relations between Great Britain and Venezuela and that he has taken the initiatory in directing in part the administration of affairs of the British colony of Guiana adjoining Venezuela. Mr. Chamberlain's hand, it appears, has been felt in the local executive council, and the St. James Gazette adds: "We are now enabled to give the tenor of a remarkable dispatch in which is outlined the im-LONDON, Oct. 18.—The St. James Gazette able dispatch in which is outlined the imperial policy towards the colonies. The document is of much importance, inasmuch as it was followed by cabled instructions from Mr. Chamberiain to the Governor of British Guiana, Sir Charles Cameron Lees, K. C. M. Indications are that the high area in the West will move rapidly eastward after the low area, causing lower temperatures in this vicinity by Saturday evening.

It is said that this statement is so direct as not to be open to interpretation, and doubt is expressed as to the very liberal interpretation placed by Archbishop Ireland on such clear statement from the Pope. It is believed, also, that if there is any misunderstanding or broad interpretation given to the Pope's language, he will speedily issue a second letter, as he did when the Knights of Pythias letter was liberally construed, leaving no room for doubt as to his position on promiscuous congresses.

Well-informed Democrats scout the suggestion that any sort of conference was held in this city Tuesday of this week or any other day lately between Mr. Bland and certain members of the Democratic State Central Committee with the view of forcing Chairman C. C. Manfitt to call the committee together.

A story to this effect was published in a morning paper Friday; and the politicians all agree that it is a fake outright and made of whole cloth for a well-defined and thoroughly understood purpose. The only part of the story which appears to have any semblance of truth is that Hen. J. W. Farris of Lebanon, who was one of the leading factors in the movement which resulted in the State convention at Pertle Springs, and who is one of the nineteen new Central Committeemen elected by that convention, was in St. Louis Tuesday. If either Mr. Bland or Mr. John A. Knott of Hannibal has been here at all this week none of their friends saw them. They were both here last week during the Fair.

Mr. Bland returned home Sunday and before leaving told a Post-Dispatch reporter in the most positive terms that he would not again be in St. Louis until the week of Oct. It, when he expected to pass through on his way to make a number of speeches in behalf of the Democratic nominee in the Eighteenth Illinois Congressional District. Mr. Knott went back to Hannibal last Saturday night and hasn't been here since. It is a fact that Mr. Farris was at the Southern Hotel on Tuesday, but he had been there more than a week, or, to be accurate, he occupied a room at the Southern from the beginning to the close of the Fair, at which he made an exhibit, and remained in St. Louis during the first part of the current week to settle up his business with the management of the Fair, as did a large number of other exhibitors. While here he did not discuss politics with anyone except in the most informal and casual way, He was too busy.

It is true that, like a large majority of the members, he is fully convinced of the fair, as did a large number of other on the entire movement toward Christian unity, which began in England and has spread through this country. The purpose of this movement was to harmonize and unify all divergent sects on non-essentials, bringing them together on the one essential tenet of Christianity.

There has been division of opinion as to whether the Catholic Church could enter into this plan of unity. An eminent Catholic preached a series of cermons in Weshington, showing there was but one plan of unity possible, and that was the return of all the sects to the Catholic Church.

Other Catholics have taken a more liberat view, and this broader sentiment found expression in the attendance of Cardinal Gibbons at the Congress of Religions at Chicago. At that time Mgr. Satolli was in Chicago, but took no part in the congress. The Cardinal's paper and subsequent magazine articles, showing common grounds on which all sects might stand, attracted much attention.

The language of the Pope's letter is said to leave no room for doubt as to the position of Rome on the holding of congresses, or the broader question of church unity, as the following direct statement makes clear: "But although these promiscuous conventions have unto this day been tolerated with prudent silence, it would nevertificies should hold their own conventions separately."

JUMPED IN A WELL.

Ex-Policemen Now Have Troubles of Their Own.

COMMENTS ON THE SHAKE-UP

Most of the Men Discussed Claim That Politics and Religion Wrought Their Undoing.

The members of the Metropolitan Police Department who were sent hurtling through the nipping October air to private life by the volcanic eruption that occurred at the last meeting of the Board of Commissioners are nursing their wrath and wounds and telling their troubles to everybody.

With very few exceptions not one of weeks ago warned them that the thing was coming.

It is curious and interesting to note the large number of men who, suspect that a mixture of politics and religion had considerable to do with their dismissal, as it they had been guilty of offensive partisan, ship while in the discharge of their duty as conservators of the peace. Others of them claim to be unable to ascribe any possible reason whatever for their discharge, while a few of the number interviewed by Post. Dispatch reporters admit with surprising frankness that they had outlived their day of usefulness. is what some of the men say:

Here is what some of the men say:

John Bennett, 372! Cook avenue: "I must say that my dismissal from the force has hurt me very much, as I have never been warned or corrected for anything. I am a Protestant and an A. P. A., and you will find that all but two or three of those dismissed are. We were ordered to get our winter hats last Monday, and I bought mine then. Now I have no use for it. The Chief's charges that he 'fired the men because they could not make out good reports' are untrue, because there are many men still on the force that I have often written reports for and who cannot even spell 'the."

Mr. Bennett is well educated and lives with Mr. Bennett is well educated and lives with Those ex-members of the force who were put on half pay are not kicking at all. Chas. Lander of 2817 Sheridan avenue is one of these. He has been on the force since 1869 and has always had a good record.

and has always had a good record.

Daniel McCarthy of the Fourth District, residing at 3629 Sullivan avenue, said that since he was retired and got his pension he had no kick coming. "I have been on the police force since May, 1870," said the old i officer, "and have done nothing wrong. I did my duty to the handle always. When ex-Gov. Francis was Mayor I did him a big favor. I knew O'Meara's family before he was born. I don't know what effect the change will have on the department, but do as for myself. Say for me that I am and always have been a true Democrat. Politics may have caused the change. I can't understand why I was retired."

William Steele of the Fourth District, residing at 2510% Harper street, said that he was not even aware that a change was going to be made. "I have served fifteen years and was never reprimanded nor failed to perform my duty. I have been a straight Democrat and am one yet. I can't say what was the cause of the change. I feel badly over it." The citizens on Steele's beat all liked him.

J. F. Hesse of the Central District, living at 805 Salisbury street, knows of no reason why he was dismissed. He has been in the city police service nearly nineteen years, fourteen of which he served in the Mounted District. "I was never reprimanded," said he, "nor had any trouble with my superior officers. Sergt. Fox will recommend me, I know." He didn't know what effect the changes would have, nor why they were made.

said: "I have worked in the city's service for twenty-two years. I don't understand why I was retired, when there are lots of others in the service older and less capable than myself. I've done nothing wrong. My reports were always correct and satisfactory and were never sent back to me. as long as new men are as good as exterienced ones, the department will not be ffected. Politics must have had a little to o with it."

Valentine Liebig, of the Third District, and iving at 1437 Chambers street, had just eturned from a 15-days' visit to relatives in Illinois the evening the Board met. He had been granted a vacation. He was very much surprised at being discharged. He hald: "The cause was politics. I was up once for wrong-doing, but beat the case.

Henry Koops, so popular with the reporters while clerk at the Third District Station, lives at 300 Parnell street. He does not sanction the action of the Board in his case at all. "When they try to make me a third-class officer." said Koops to the reporter, "I resign." He gave no reasons for the Board's late actions. To tell the truth, he cares very little about the Board just now, or as to what they do, especially in the future.

A. F. Deisner, formerly of the Central District, but for the past six months of the Fourth District, was not at home when the reporter called. His wife did not know his whereabouts. Mrs. Deisner said her husband was much surprised (as all who were seen were), and he did not understand why he lost his job. He was an officer for seven years. She had never heard him express his opinion concerning the stability of the department or if politics was mixed with the Board's proceedings.

Andrew Crump, of the Mounted District, who was retired on half pay, was seen at his home at 2827 North Twentieth street. He has served twenty-three years as a police officer. He said: "I don't believe the changes will have much effect on the efficiency of the department, for St. Louis has one of the best police systems in the world. I don't believe politics caused the changes. I belong to the Republican party."

Sergt. George Pierce, who has just been retired from the Fourth District on half pay, lives in a nice, comfortable home at 1915 North Grand avenue. For twenty-six years he has served continually in the capacity of a policeman and part the time as Captain, and was retired an honorable Sergeant. He said:

"I was always a full-fledged Democrat—what is called a war Democrat—and a native American. I am capable of doing work a long time yet. I regret that I was retired, for I do not like to be idle. I was surprised and vexed when I was retired. I will not receive the pension. I never did yet, although I fought through the war. Don't believe in sponging off the Government and will not off the city. My opinion is that politics have had more or less to do with these changes, and I believe if it is kept up it will demoralize the department."

George W. Miller, 909 Lami: "I have served 25 years and always considered myself faithful and efficient. I was never but once called before the board and was then honorably acquitted. I do not know why I was dismissed; don't think politics the reason; am undecided as to what I shall do in the future."

John W. Wolff, 1002 Russell avenue: "I have served on the force twenty-hine years and do not know why I was dismissed. I had not outlived mycusefulness. I was considered an efficient officer by my superiors. I don't think politics was responsible for my dismissal. I do not care to express any epinion as to the effect the changes will have on the force. The worst material was not removed."

cpinion as to the effect the changes will have on the force. The worst material was not removed."

Charles Blehle, 1300 South Eighteenth: "I have been on the force for exactly ZI years, 6 months and 9 days. I always considered myself a first-class officer; don't know why I was discharged; don't think politics could have caused it; have always been a Republican, but never a partisan. It is hard to say how the wholesale dismissals will affect the efficiency of the force."

Thomas O'Brien, 2523 Hickory street: "I have been on the force il years, and considered myself a capable officer. I was never off duty save for sickness. I know of no reason why I should have been dismissed. I have a wife and three children to support and don't know what I'll do. I shall try to get back on the force."

John Flynn, 2324 Rutger: "Had I served three months longer I would have been connected with the department a quarter of a century. I am getting old and am well satisfied to retire on half pay. I don't think the changes were wrought by politics or will interfere with the efficiency of the force."

Andrew Parle, 2705 Park avenue: "The fact that I served twenty years and six months without a reprimand should speak for my efficiency. I don't think politics was considered when the dismissals were ordered. The board never knew my politics. The removal of so many veterans at once may temporarily cripple the service. I am well satisfied to retire on half pay."

T. M. Murphy, 1518 California avenue: "I served on the force for four years and was generally considered a first-class officer. Since I was shot last November I have never been real strong and am glad to retire on half pay. I don't think the dismissals are due to politics, and don't think the efficiency of the force will be diministical."

the efficiency of the force will be diminished."

W. B. Gregory, 2647 Lafayette avenue: "I have been on the force for twelve and a half years. I always had the confidence of my superiors and was a faithful and efficient officer. I was reduced from the rank of sergeant to patrolman and no cause was assigned. I have an idea why the changes were made, but for fear of wronging some one I will not state it. Politics could not have been the reason. I have always been a Democrat. The wholesale dismissals can have nothing but a demoralizing effect on the force. I am not serving as patrolman. I sent in my resignation yesterday."

A. G. Keller, 2647 Lafayette avenue: "For twelve years I have been patrolman and knew I did good service. I was dismissed without cause being assigned. I think

David Coleman, 1709 Dolman: "I have been on the force twenty years and know I am as sound physically and mentally as I was the day I entered the service. I can see no reason why I should be retired on hair pay. I don't feel resentful toward the board. I think they intended to be honest and fair. I do not feel that I am competent to judge what effect the dismissals with have on the force. Were I called to advise a man physically and mentally competent, I should advise him to keep off the police force. An honest man will not find much favor there. I am retired on half pay, and am satisfied."
Almond Worcester, 1425 Grattan street: "I have been on the force nineteen years and five months, and was just reduced from a sergeant to a patrolman. I am now serving as such and will continue to do my duty. I don't know why I was reduced, and don't question the right of my superiors in any of their acts. I don't think politics had anything to do with the shake up. I have not thought what effect the changes will have on the service. I have no fault to find and am thankful for the favors I have had."

Ex-Sergt. Michael Ryan: "I really have

Ex-Sergt. Michael Ryan: "I really have no complaint to make of the action of the board in retiring me as a pensioner. I have been on the force twenty-four years and one month, and for the past year I have been unable to do more than two months' steady duty, owing to severe illness. Chief Harrigan has treated me exceedingly well, and owing to my continued absence it was no surprise to me to be retired. Conscientiously speaking, and taking the shake-up all for all, I think it was decidedly for the good of the department. I have no regrets to express for my retirement. When the next election comes I shall take off my coat and work for the party that has given me my bread and butter, tooth and toe nail."

Ex-Officer Samuel Rife: "I do not know what was the reason for my retirement, as, although I had been on the force six months over twenty years, I am still physically able to do duty in every way. I had never been before the board but once, and that was one month after I went on the force, and on a minor charge. It has been suggested to me that perhaps my friendship for Capt. William Young had something to do with it. I cannot see why, however. My friendship with the Captain dates back to the time when we walked adjoining beats and it was perfectly natural. He had always treated me well and justly, as he did everyone else, and I had no reason to dislike him. I was also informed that the retirement of Sergts. Shoemaker and Gregory and Officer Keller was brought about by the same causes—their friendship for Young—but of course I can fiot youch for any such statements. Though I voted the Republican ticket last year, I have never in any way been a partisan or taken any part in politics."

Ex-Officer John M. McFadden: "I was never more surpirsed in my life than when I learned that I was dismissed and graded third-class. I have always been on the best of terms with my commanding officer, Capt. of terms with my commanding officer, Capt. Campbell, and have never asked him for a favor that I did not get. Hence, when I found myself graded third-class I was stupened. I am perfectly capable of doing police duty and have never had any complaints made of my methods. I have been told that it was only Republicans and Francis Democrats that were let go, but as I have always been a Stone man that would not apply to me. It may be that my weight, 80 pounds, did it, but if so it was unjust, as right now I am better able to do duty than a great many of the smaller men in the Sixth District. I have no criticism of the board, or for that matter, of anyone else, to make. I District. I have no criticism of the board, or for that matter, of anyone else, to make. I am fired and I suppose that ends it."

Ex-Officer John McDonald refused to express an opinion on the subject of his retirement on half pay.

Ex-Officer Wm. Waish was not at home to give his opinion. Mrs. Walsh said he had resigned from the force and did not care how things went in the shake-up, as he was now working for a Mr. Farrell.

Ex-Officer Jno. Hagan, who was retired as a pensioner, had no complaint to make or criticisms to express. His retirement was brought about by disabilities.

TROUBLE ABOUT GRAIN.

Mixed Wheat From Kansas City Is the Bone of Contention.

What promises to make trouble in wheat circles is being quietly discussed on 'Change. For some time it has been known that mixed wheat has been coming to St. Louis from Kansas City, and grading as No. 2, notwithstanding the law prohibiting the mixing of wheat in a standard grade.

Kansas City, it is said, has been unloading on St. Louis until no less than 250,000 bushels of No. 2 hard winter mixed with spring wheat is now in St. Louis elevators.

This has been made possible by the ruling of the Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner that the grading of wheat in one part of the State must rule in other parts. In other words the first grading must be final. Under this rule St. Louis has been filled up with Kansas City's mixture under the Kansas City grading.

The inspectors on the east side of the river when this mixed wheat began to come in refused to pass it and the willy shippers kept it all on this side of the river. The East Side inspectors, however, are worried over the loss of inspection fees. They have asked the Wheat Inspection Committee of the Merchants' Exchange, by whom they are employed, to permit them to follow the Missouri rule and grade the mixed wheat as No. 2 winter.

The committee, which is composed of H. F. Langenberg, Chairman; G. W. Hill, C. H. Seaman, T. B. Morton, Roger P. Annan and Gibert Sears, met Friday afternoon to pass on the petition.

The gradings established by the Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners refer to the question as follows:

"In case of mixture of hard winter wheat with soft winter wheat, it shall be graded as bard winter wheat."

A mixture of spring and winter wheat is covered as follows: "All mixed spring and winter wheat of the question agitating the receivers and elevator man is whether under the law some What promises to make trouble in wheat

TO FORCE AN ELECTION.

Hew Members of the School Board Re gard the Scheme.

Mr. Ulrich, chairman of the Election Co mittee of the School Board, thinks that the effort being made to force an election by mandamus will come to naught because mandamis will come to naught because there are not five citizens who can be induced to become plaintiffs in the suit.

"If the Court should order an election," said Mr. Ulrich, "it will have to provide for the expenses, which will amount to $15,00. The court has no fund to be used for such a purpose; hence the plaintiffs in the suit will have to pay for the carrying out of the court's decree."

TROUBLE IN GUATEMALA

Contention Between the Government and the Railway Company. NEW YORK, Oct. 18 .- A special from Guatemala La Nueva says: The Government of Guatem

Guatemala Central Railway Company are at war. The railway is owned by a comat war. The railway is owned by a company chartered in California. C. P. Huntington is its president. Nanne is its manager. The first link in the line which was one of Blaine's dreams is finished. It is to be continued to the Mexican frontier. Nanne asserts that if encouraged and supported the line will go from Salvador to Mexico, through Guatemala, within three years. It was rumored that the railway was for sale and instantly an official decree was issued by Guatemala providing that sales of railways may be effected only with the knowledge and consent of the Government. The Government exacts the preference on equal terms with outside purchasers. The decree appears to have been issued to discourage a Scotch syndicate of railroad officers. But it should not affect the Central Railway's contract, which expressly stipulates freedom of sale.

The result of the quarrel is awaited with interest. There are hints that it may entail international trouble, since there is in the decree an alleged violation of the Government.

"Dollar Gas"

It is announced to-day that St. Louis is to have "dollar gas." This puts this convenient and economical fuel within the reach of all. The convenience of gas

We have met the demand for something better with our new

AN OVERHAULING NEEDED.

When the subject of jobbery in the City Hall was first taken up the Post-Dispatch urged that the whole matter of the award of the plans, the bids, contracts and work from foundation to roof be given a thorough investigation.

It was charged that the plans that were accepted actually called for a far greater expenditure than was admitted on their face, and that for this reason and because of the influence of certain contractors and officials the plans were accepted as offering a finer building for the money than other honest plans

It was charged that there was jobbery in the subsequent alteration of the specifications to fit the plans and in the let-

That the plans called for a more expensive building than was, expected has been proved. The cost will be not less than $500,000 in excess of the original estimate, and color has been given to the other charges by the disclosures of crooked and careless work. Every investigation of the work on the building has brought to light some crookedness or carelessness, faults of material or of construction.

The necessity, therefore, of a general and exhaustive investigation has been demonstrated. The people of St. Louis ought to know before another dollar is expended on the building how much jobbery they are paying for and how much bad work has been done. They ought to know all about the contracts and the work and the probable additional cost. The blame for the blunders or jobs in the work already done should be fixed

Its entir drculation is bona fide delivery by carriers or sale through newsboys or news agents. Its carrier circulation is nearly twice as great as that of any other newspaper in St. Louis.

ABOUT "FORCING THE FIGHT."

As usual, the silly talk about "forcing a fight" that always finds place in the gold standard newspapers whenever a meeting of the Missouri State Democratic mittee is under discussion is heard now. Of course this is for outside effect. There will be no "fight" over the meeting of the State Committee or when the meet-

The State Convention at Pertle Springs prescribed a regular and orderly method for calling a meeting of the State Committee whenever the Chairman thinks there is need of one or when a majority of the thirty-four members of the com-mittee desire it. A large majority of Missouri Democrats wish a meeting of the committee to be held soon to take up the question of a better organization of the party. And there is no reason why that meeting should not be held before the end of October.

If called, there is little doubt that a majority of the members of the com-mittee will attend the meeting. If the Chairman falls to attend, a new Chair-man can be elected. If the Secretary elected. If any of the members, new or old, fall to attend, that is a matter of no consequence provided a quorum is present. If there are any vacancies to be filled, they should be filled by the committee when in session. Various subommittees should be appointed to do the

A LEADEN-FOOTED REFORM.

The Post-Dispatch warns Street Comnissioner Milner not to be too hasty in carrying out his plan to post the name of the streets where all can see them. The St. Louis people have not been used to this last frill of urban progress and too sudden a change might have a bad effect on them. Having become accustomed to finding their way around the city by memory, by compass, by noting the bark on the trees, by getting a police man to guide them and by various devices handed down from our savage ancestors, the immediate introduction to the luxuries of civilization in the matter of street posting might be disastrous. They natight become confused and unable to tell where they are at. But perhaps this warning is unneces sary. Perhaps Street Commissioner Milner may not be able to immediately accomplish the work of posting street names. Other commissioners have harbored the same intention and have passed away with the streets unnamed. Mr. Milner may not be able to pass his street naming bill. He may not be able to find the money to pay for the signs. The St. Louis people may have years in which of the city very rapidly. to grow accustomed to the idea of readthe names of the str ners. Time alone can tell.

SILVER IN CIRCULATION.

A correspondent is disturbed by the statement of Secretary of the Navy Herbert that "within the last seventeen years the United States have added to their circulation the stupendous sum of $549 -700,000 of silver currency, and have now more silver per capita than any silver country in the world." The correspondent asks us to refute this by giving the total silver coinage since the foundation of the Government, the total silver in the Treasury and the total silver in circulation by deducting these two.

Now, it would not be an exact calculation to deduct the amount of silver coin in the Treasury from the total amount coined and say that the difference rep resented the amount in circulation. To say nothing of the 35,000,000 of trade dollars that were recalled, there is a large percentage of loss and waste to be considered. This is shown by the fact that a silver coin older than 1850 is ex-

But without taking this into consideration, it is easy to refute Secretary Her-bert's statement out of "standard" goldbug literature. In "A Financial Catechism," published by the Sound Currency Committee of the New York Reform Club, we find the following figures: Total silver coinage to 1873.... $ 83,000,000

Total silver coinage since 1873 423,000,000 So that, according to this "Sound Currency" authority, Secretary Her-bert's figures give as circulation $43,700,-000 silver dollars more than the total

This sort of talk has spread until the matter of Miss Thayer's intentions has become a subject of public consideration. A Post-Dispatch reporter called on Dr. Hamford Thayer, a brother of Miss Thayer, and made inquiry as to the truth of the rumor.

"It's just this way," said Dr. Thayer, "Ruth is passionately fond of music. She is in Burope and does not like to break off with her studies to return here. She has received several offers to go on the stage, but father will not hear of it; besides she is engaged to be married.

"I don't know whether or not Charles Humphrey made her an offer as is reported. He knows her ability. Her voice has a sweet ring to it that can't be duplicated. John Heines' story is pathetic. He arrived in St. Louis early in the summer from Chicago, and, being without friends or money, applied to the Central Home of Rest for assistance. He was sick with dropsy. Through the influence of Supt. Hausmann he was sent to the City Hospital.

Two months ago Supt. Sutter said Helnes would have to leave the institution, and so informed Mr. Eugene Hausmann of the Central Home of Rest. What to do, with him was a problem. It was a choice between the Poor House and the streets. In this extremity Mr. Hausmann proved a true friend in need.

He bought a new and serviceable outfit from the skin out, purchased him a ticket to Mt. Pleasant, and last night they sent him back to his mother.

A Sad State of Affairs.

A Sad State of Affairs.

From the Nevada (Mo.) Mail.

In an interview in regard to the sliver question, Senator Vest takes a discouraging view of the situation so far as the next National Convention is concerned. It is to be hoped, in the interest of justice and for the good of the Democratic party, that Senator Vest is wrong in his diagnosis of this very important question. Yet, at the same time, there is no denying the power of money matters in conventions and elections. It is, indeed, a sad state of affairs if the people's interests are to be over-ridden by the moneyed power, and governmental affairs conducted in the interest of greed and monopoly.

PUBLIC LIBRARY STATIONS.

Twenty-One New Distributing Station

Mr. Crunden says of his plans for stations:

"The stations will be visited by wagons from the library on certain days, say Monday. Wednesday and Friday. A person who fills out a blank for books at the station Monday morning before 10 ciclock may return and get the book in the afternoon after 3 ciclock. Of course to make sure of receiving a book they should send in a list of eight or ten books.

"The druggists will only have to receive the orders, give them to the library agent and take the books when the delivery wagon comes.

AT THE GOOD SHEPHERD'S

Teresa Ortale Will Get a Home and an Education. The mystery of missing Teresa Ortale is lved. The girl was found Thursday by her ister in the House of the Good Shepherd.

For some time Teresa has been tired of the life of clerk at a fruit and candy store and life of clerk at a fruit and candy store and has often wished to go to school like other girls. When her fourteenth birthday came around she resolved to overlook the great advantages of free chewing gum and candy, so last Saturday she shook the retail fruit business and went forth in search of an education.

The House of the Good Shepherd was the first place she struck. She told the good sisters her story and perhaps hinted at the temptations of a young girl at a street stand. Any how, the sisters took her in and she is now learning more about arithmetic than making change.

Teresa's father, when seen Friday morning, said that he would allow his daughter to remain at the Good Shepherd.

LETTER CARRIERS ALERT.

The statement in Wednesday's Post-Dispatch that the letter carriers' "spotters" are at work in St. Louis caused a stir among the gentlemen in gray uniforms. They discussed the situation at the stations, substations, main office or wherever they chanced to meet.

Postmaster Carlisle declares that he does not know whether or not the "spotters" are at work, because they act independently of him. "But I have no objection to the inspection at all," said the Postmaster, "for no worthy man need have the least fear. I met two of the inspectors who were here six weeks ago and they are very fair men. I think the St. Louis force will show up well, but in a crowd of 300 it is reasonable to suppose that there are some shirkers, and I would sooner have the department at Washington sift them out than to do it my-self."

Of the "spotters" and their work this

Washington sift them out than to do it myselt."

Of the "spotters" and their work this much is known. The forty-three who were put to work in Chicago about two months ago finished Saturday, Oct. 5. Of the 1,000 carriers in the Windy City 80 were found derelict and 173 were ordered by the Washington authorities to defend themselves against charges or be dismissed.

After this accomplishment the force of inspectors in Chicago and fifteen who were in small Ohio towns divided themselves between St. Louis and Cincinnati and they are now at work in those cities.

While in Chicago the spotters made their headquarters in two rooms of the Auditorium Hotel.

In like manner, the inspectors now in St. Louis are quartered in the Planters', Southern and St. Nicholas hotels, and they have a general office in one of them.

There are 299 carriers in St. Louis, and when the inspection is over, each of them will have been shadowed for an entire day by two "spotters."

when the inspection is over, each of them will have been shadowed for an entire day by two "spotters."

When the inspection system was started the Post-office Department at Washington required each Postmaster to forward the name, age, official number and address of each carrier as well as a map of his route made to scale and a detailed schedule of his hours of delivery and collection. With these data in hand a pair of inspectors watch a mán from the moment he leaves the office until he returns. If he takes a drink in a saloon they know it, if he loiters they are aware of it, if he is too old to do the work they see ft.

A Chicago carrier began his toil one day at 6:30 a. m. The inspectors said so in their report and they also said that at 8:30 a. m. he sat himself at a table in a saloon, drank four glasses of beer, are several sandwiches and loitered forty-five minutes. He will never have an opportunity to do so again. The "spotters" are men of experience. They are ex-Post-office Inspectors and exsecuted the same ratio were to hold in St. Louis fifty carriers would be discharged.

HIS WIFE LYING AT DEATH'S DOOR.

Henry Yeager Locked Up Awaiting the Outcome.

CHARGED WITH BEATING HER.

The Woman's Brother Charges That Her Husband Has Mistreated Her for Six Years.

Henry Yeager and his wife, living in a beautiful little flat at 2848 Eads avenue, which they own, have been divided for years by their religious beliefs. During the past few months the breach has been widened, her friends state, by a dispute over the sale of their home. Latterly Yeager has been very bitter toward his wife, according to the latter's relatives and friends, and has frequently assaulted her. The last assault has resulted in Mrs. Yeager being confined to her bed and her life being despaired of. Since last Sunday her condition has been such that at 8 o'clock Thursday night Yeager was arrested and is now being held to await the result of his wife's injuries.

The assault was committed on the night of Sept. 16 last, according to the information upon which Yeager was arrested. Mrs. Yeager suffered in silence, persistently shielding her husband and telling the physicials summend that her injuries had been received accidentally. Sunday night Mrs. Yeager's brother, Wenzel Weber, of 1412 Monroe street, chanded to call upon his sister and by assiduous questioning says he elicited from her a statement. Without her knowledge he requested Yeager's arrest. Yeager is a machnist employed by Mesker Bros., Sixth and Poplar streets, and is well-to-do. He married Maggie Weber fitteen years ago. He is about 60 years old and his wife 38.

To a Post-Dispatch reporter Weber made the following statement Friday:

To a Post-Dispaton reporter Weber made the following statement Friday:

"Yeager has been threating my sister hadly for six years. About six years ago she told me he had choked her and abused her, but she refused to prosecute him through feat. Monday, Sept. 15, he wanted me to come out to see him on particular business, but I didn't ge for fear he was up to some trick. Sunday night my sister told me I sagar came in at 9 o'clock the day following my expected viert, and began seolding her. Then he took her by the throat, choaked ker, threw her on the floor and stamped upon her and kieked her, bruising her head and knocking out a footh and injuring her knee."

"The declars told me my sister was injured interfailly, and that her recovery is exceedingly denoteful. The would be between them ordinaily arose over the fact that he is a Cettlelic and he has no religious belief. About two months ago, too, he wanted to sell their property, and she would not sign the papers. This angered him. At about 11:20 o'clock hast night a policeman came to my house and said my sister was much worse. I have been with her ever since. She is afraid he will kill her if he comes home, but she sent me over here to have him released. The Captain won't let him go, though, Teager wen't way from home after he assaulted my sister and didn't come back for two days.

Thursday evening, after Yeager's arrest,

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is rapid. For this reason we put up a 5oc. size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children.

In other conditions gain must be slow, sometimes almost imperceptible, health can't be built up in a day. or this Scott's Emulsion ust be taken as nourish-ent food rather than edicine, food prepared for and weak digestions.

Capt. Boyd of the Fifth District, where Yeager is locked up, sent to learn from Dr. James Pirtle and Dr. Jenkins, who are attending Mrs. Yeager, if her condition was serious. He states they informed him she was in a precarious state and probably injured internally. A charge of disturbing the peace will be placed against Yeager and the case continued tintil the result of Mrs. Yeager's injuries has developed.

and the case continued intil the result of Mrs. Yeager's injuries has developed.

Mrs. Yeager was barely able to talk when seen by a Post-Dispatch reporter and would only say that it was not at her request that her husband had been arrested. Dr. Pirtle, when seen, stated that Mrs. Yeager's condition had slightly improved since Thursday, She had finelly admitted to him, he said, that her husband had assaulted her and her injuries were the result. He stated that he is now treating her for the injury to her knee, which is badly inflamed. For several days Mrs. Yeager had been able to walk about. Then she applied cold water to her knee, evaluing in such exeruciating agony that a physician had to be summoned. Her back was also injured.

This is an outrage," he said. "My wife was about to hit me with a pitcher that evening. I merely grasped her wrists and she slipped on the oil cloth, injuring her knee. A few days after she went down stairs into the cellar and caught cold in it. I have had Doctors Mudd, Greer, Pirtle and Jenkins attending her. I have always been kind to her and when she objected to selling the house, although I could make $1,400 on the deal, I made over all my property to her. Of course, we have had out little quarrels, like any either couple,"

Yeager is a mild-mannered man and has not the sppearance of a brute, such as his brother-in-law pictures him.

John Bentley, who appeared as attorney for Curtis Mossman, a peddler, arrested on the charge of using illegal measures. Mossman's alleged swindling device was unique. He peddles onions and uses a peak measure. Inside this measure was placed a half-peck measure, fastened in, with onions along the bottom and between the sides of the two. Thus it was impossible to shake out the second measure.

Mossman filled this with onions and sold them as a whole peck for 10 cents. He worked his little game on Mrs. H. Foster of 257 Sarpy avenue Thursday afternoon and came to grief. She comprished to Officer Knocke, who arrested Mossman.

The measure was in court as evidence against Mossman, and that is what decided the case against him. He was assessed 25.

A school boy sometimes "forgets;" at least that is what he says when he comes home with holes in the knees of his trousers, caused by the rough and tumble diversions of the play-ground. We make our school suits to withstand this wear and tear of roughing it as far as it is possible to do so. Perhaps nothing but boilerplate would be completely efective.

But it isn't necessary to sacrifice style and proper fit to wearing qualities. Our boys' suits are dressy as well as well made.

Purdue and the Misseuri Tigers-Foot Ball Season Opened in

Special to The Post-Dispatch.
COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 18.—The Tigers left Columbia, Mo., at noon to-day on a special train over the Wabash for St. Louis, where they will play against the Purdue University team to-morrow.

The team is in splendid condition. In the first game here with Sedalia their interference was very poor. In the game with Vanderbilt eleven it was much better, and in the Purdue game it will be better still.
All this week Bliss has been training his team hard and the improvement has been wonderful. The Tigers will play a scientific game Saturday and Purdue will not have a walkover. Pop Bliss is the best coach by far that the Tigers ever had. The team which will go to St. Louis is certainly the strongest that the University ever sent out. ever sent out. It is about il pounds lighter than the Purdue team, but every man is a strong player.

Price, Sinnett and Gibson are end players. Price is perhaps the best end in the League. Sinnett is good and Gibson, who has lately returned, is better. Ben Thompson is one of the best center men in the country. Brigham, the 210 pound man who played center for Sedalla, has entered school and has been playing with the team all week. He will play right guard. Hill will guard the other end, and he is almost as strong as Brigham. Pauley and Conley, who played so well in the Vanderbilt game, will play tackles. Pauley is one of the largest men in the team and plays good game. Conley is a hard player. Allee plays full back. In the Vanderbilt game when Connell, who is one of the best punters in the country, would resort to a punt Allee always sent the pigskin back full distance.

Showhaus will play left half and Capt. Young right half. These men did mare to win the Vanderbilt game than any öther two men in the team. Each man, including Evans, who will play quarter back, is a strong individual player and as a team they are splendid.

Columbia will send a large delegation to St. Louis.

Wiew the game.

"St. Louis crowds seem possessed to get a top of every parade and spectacle we ave. There is no need of such a daplay interest or bad manners, and it is to a hoped that those having the Purduelssouri match in charge will make such trangements that nothing of the kind in take place."

There will be a foot ball game between the Washignton University and the Mc. Grew Guards at the West End grounds on Wednesday, Oct. 23.

"Beef" Wheeler is eligible to play with Princeton in the Harvard game and wih probably do so. He will play right guard and Riggs left.

The Lindell Foot Ball League will consist of the Hudsons, Deihls, Globes, Kensingtons and two other elevens not yet selected. The Deihls and Kensingtons will play at New Sportsman's Park Sunday.

Hoeper and Hall will be the guards foothe University of Michigan. Hooper is the red-headed six-footer who played in '93, and Hall is the old Princeton man who was disqualified after winning the shot-put at the intercollegiate games here last June on the grounds of professionalism.

A Philadelphia paper has devised a scheme by which to builetin a foot ball-game. A miniature foot ball field is laid out on an immense board, and then the ball is moved along as each play is made on the distant field. Arthur Irwin, Manager of the Philadelphia Base Ball Club, is the inventor.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN'S OPINION. He Thinks the Championship Fight Will Be a Hot One.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.-Ex-Champion John L. Sullivan, in speaking of the coming fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons,

"I wish in my heart to see it come off." "I wish in my heart to see it come off," said Sullivan, "as the future of boxing depends on six final outcome.

"It will be a fight for keeps and both men will do their level best to win. Corbett is a clever man and so is Fitzsimmons. They know how to use their hands, and they are no novices at the game. Fitzsimmons is said to be a hard hitter; so is Corbett. He can hit as good as any one, and I'm sure I ought to know. The fight should last about twenty rounds. The men will fight cautiously at first, but will no doubt take things seriously as soon as they have sized each other up."

DEATH OF ERNEST LINK.

He Expired at the Same Hour as His Comrade Phil Breckman.

Superintendent of the Grone Brewery, died at his residence Thursday afternoon. The cause of his death was hemorrhage of the stomach.

Mr. Link was born in Unterkessach Baden, Germany, March 9, 1835, and came to St. Louis in 1860. He was a member of the Home Guards from 1861 to 1855. At the close of the war he entered the Lafayette Brewery and in 1873 was made foreman in the Grone Brewery, advancing from that position to Vice-President and Superintendent. He severed his connection with the brewing business at the time of the consolidation. He was a member of Arndi Lodge, 311, Harugari, and the Socialer Singing Society and was the founder and first President of the Beer Brewers' Protective Society. He leaves a widow and three sons and four daughters, all grown.

A sad coincidence is the death of Mr. Link and Mr. Phil Brockman at about the same hour Thursday. Mr. Link and Mr. Brockman were on terms of the tlosest intimacy. Both came from Germany at the same time and were bosom friends from the time of their arrival in St. Louis. They were members of Frank P. Blair Post, G. A. R. The funerals of both will take place Sundsy at 2 o'clock, that of Mr. Link to St. Matthew's Cemetery.

A NOBLE LIFE

SPENT FOR AND WITH SUFFER-ING WOMEN.

What a vast amount of misery and suffering has been prevented by the clear-headed foresight of one noyle woman! She had struggled, labored, and sacrificed for the weitze of her sex.

The eyes of the women of the world were upon her.

As she recalled the past, and tried to penetrate the future, a smile of supreme satisfaction passed over her honest face as she remembered that her life's work as she remembered that her life's work would be perpetuated.

The room in which she sat contained hundreds of volumes of records; and, turning to her daughter, she said,—

"My daughter, this room, as you well know, contains the records of my life's work, in which for many years you have so diligently assisted me so diligently assisted me.

"By earnest application you have com-passed my methods; and it is a happi-ness to think that when I leave, the glorious work will, through you, go on. "The mission is a noble one. Do as I have done: never permit a woman's ap-peal to go unheeded.

"These records tell of every case ever submitted to me; and it is my wish that the facts they contain shall in time prove a much-needed education to the women

Thus did Lydia E. Pinkham hand over to her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pink-ham, what may be termed the salvation of her sex; and that wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Phikham's Vegetable Com-pound, which all druggists consider as standard as flour, goes on redeeming hundreds of women from the fearful consequences of female diseases.

PROF. BEMIS' REMOVAL.

An Explanation by Officials of the . Chicage University.

CHICAGO, Oc. 18.-Albion W. Small, head professor of sociology, and Nathaniel But-ler, director of the University Extension Burean of the University of Chicago, with the concurrence of President Harper, have reconcurrence of President Harper, have replied in a lengthy letter to the statements made by Prof. Edward W. Bemis, relative to his dismissal from the university. They say that from the first Prof. Bemis' position was that of a university extension of professor and that his services were never needed in the university proper. The number of lectures delivered by the professor are cited and it is said that the attendance constantly decreased. His actual earnings are given as $1,000 a year, whereas his salary was $2,500. There being no endowment for carrying on this work, it became evident that Prof. Bemis' lectures would have to cease.

that Prof. Bemis' lectures would have to cease.

Regarding Prof. Harper's letter to Prof. Bemis, it is said:

"The letter of President Harper to Mr. Bemis in reference to his remarks in the First Presbyterian Church was written at a time when the citizens of Chicago were in great anxiety because of the disturbed condition of affairs. It should, however, be noted that President Harper's request that Mr. Bemis should exercise care in his statements was not made with reference to any utterances which Mr. Bemis was making in university work or in a university extension lecture, but in an outside capacity before a promiscuous audience. This was, as already intimated, at a time when agitation of any kind was universally regarded as imprudent. It should also be noted that President Harper did not even then take issue with Mr. Bemis on any "doottries" but that he requested him to be careful about making untimely and immature statements."

"Mr. Bemis' real complaint," says the letter, "was not that he was asked to resign from the university extension staff, but that he was not transferred to a corresponding position on the staff of instructors inside the university. We state now our opinion only when we say that so far as we are able to judge, every member of the faculty who is acquainted with Mr. Bemis would indorse the president's conclusion that such transfer would have placed Mr. Bemis in a position which he is not strong enough to fill.

"Soon after Mr. Bemis was informed, more transfer would have placed Mr. Bemis in a position which he is not strong enough to fill.

"Soon after Mr. Bemis was informed, more than a year ago, that his services were he longer required by the university, one of these signers was notified by a friend of Mr. Bemis, first by letter and afterward verbally, that 'if Prof. Bemis is not retained a newspaper agitation will be begun, from which the university will not recover in a generation.' The reply was that if this was intended as a threat no more direct means could be taken to hasten the termination of Mr. Bemis' connection with the university. That it was intended as a threat the newspapers are all-ready to begin the attack if Bemis is sent away and the university will drop him at its peril.

"To summarise, Mr. Bemis has compelled us to advertise both his incompetency as a university extension fecturer and also the opinion of those most closely associated with him that he is not qualified to fill a university position. We wish to make the most emphatic and unreserved assertion which words can convey that the freedom of teaching has never been involved in the case. The case of Mr. Bemis would have been Sanskrit or psychology or mathematics."

The Tolede Bicycle-Makers' Strike Becomes a Lockout. TOLEDO, O., Oct. 18,-The strike was TOLEDO, O., Oct. 18.—The strike was this morning turned into a lockout. Yesterday the tool makers in all the bloycle factories except the Viking, and in the machine shope of the city struck for a 10 per cent advance in wages. The Manufacturers' Association declined to accede to the demand and this morning posted notices on the doors of their establishments announcing that they were closed. This makes nearly 5,000 men who are idle to-day. Not a hoycle factory is at work in any department except the Viking. The foundries are at work, but otherwise everything in iron and steel manufacturing is at a standstill.

Jennie Wilson, a widow 22 years old, living at Seventh and Elim streets, attracted a policeman to her room Thursday night by screaming. She told him she had taken strychnine. The officer took her to the Dispensary, where the stomach pump was used. Then she was sent to the City Hospital. A few capsules containing quinine were found in the woman's room, and as she exhibited no evidences of poisoning it is thought that a quarrel which she had had with her lover caused her to make a pretence of suicide.

Four True Bills Returned by the Ray County Grand-Jury.

Indictments Charge Attempt to Obtain Money Under Palse Pretenses and Attempted Fraud.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.
RICHMOND, Mo., Oct. 18.—The Grandjury of Ray County to-day returned four indictments against Dr. George W. Fraker.
Three of the indictments charge an attempt to obtain money under false pretense. The representations to cheaf and defraud.

The findings of the indistments occupied the attention of the jury for four days, Scores of witnesses testified.

Dr. Fraker is at present confined in the Ray County jail. At his preliminary examination before a Justice of the Peace, the bond was placed at $20,000. No efforts were made by the doctor or his attorneys to furnish such a sum. It is a well known fact Judge Broaddus of the Ray County Circuit Court considers the sum excessive. Acting upon this base the doctor with his attorneys will appear before the court at the earliest opportunity for the placing of bail. The amount will be fixed at between five and seven thousand dellars, as Judge Broadus has already so expressed himself. Dr. Fraker expects to give the ball and regain his freedom.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Ky., Oct. 18.-Bud Overton was to have been hanged here to-day for the double murder of Gus Loed, to-day for the double murder of Gus Loed, an old peddler, and his wife. As it was to be the first legal hanging that ever took place in Harlan County, it was looked forward to by thousands who expected to witness the execution. Orders have come in fast for reports of the hanging to-day, but it has been indefinitely postponed by the escape, some weeks ago, of Overton, and there is still no clew to the whereabouts of the murderer.

James Anderson, 60 years old, blind, crippled and led by his 11-year-old grand-daughter, called at the Recorder's office. Thursday to inquire if Conrad Geist had any property subject to execution.

According to the old man he met Geist at Wickham's restaurant about the first of October. Geist said he had a very lucrative rooming-house at 594 Locust street, and as Fair week was at hand it would be worth much money. Then he offered to sell out to the old man.

Keeping a rooming-house was what Anderson thought he would like and he made a dicker with Geist. The price asked for the furniture, good will, etc., was $150. The old man had $135 and after some demur Geizt accepted that. He gave possession pled and led by his 11-year-old grand-

Receiver of the Division Realty Co Brings a Sensational Suit.

Sidney E. Davis, receiver of the Division Realty Company, brought suit Friday against John F. Kilinglesmith, Harry W. Lindhorn, Henry W. Lohman, Martin Gruben, William F. Parks, Joseph Frein and German Neukum, constituting the Board of Directors of the company, for $30,000.

This amount was the original capital stock of the concern, which, the receiver alleges, was received by the defendants, but never turned into the treasury. The receiver was appointed on the petition of a number of the small stockholders, who paid their money in and never saw it again.

Mr. Dickson, attorney for Receiver Davis, says that Klinglesmith, former secretary of Reservoir Building and Loan Association and several directors of the same, organized the Division Realty Company in order to get an extension of time from the Reservoir Building and Loan Association creditors by giving them stock and notes of the Division Realty Company. Mr. Dickson says suit was brought on the theory that the defendants have the $20,000 capital stock with which the Division Realty Company began business according to its articles of incorporation.

The Windom is an extremely handsome craft. She is painted a pure white, which is now the regulation in the Revenue Cutter Service, as well as in the Navy, and her keen lines and graceful mold are shown off to advantage in her semi-floating position. She was designed personally by Geo. W. Melville, Engineer-in-Chief of the Navy, and her construction was superintended by Capits. Russell Glover and John Brann, the latter having succeeded Capt. Capt. Brann is to command the Windom when she shall have been commissioned. She has twin screws and triple expansion engines of 800 horse-power, which will drive the ship sixteen knots an hour, making her the swiftest vessel in the service. She will be armed with three rapid-dire Hotchkiss guns of the highest power.

The Windom will probably remain here several days. The vessel will have 412 tons displacement, is 170 feet long over all, 27 feet beam and 13½ feet deep.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Gas Will Be 20 per Cent Less After January, 1896.

After January 1, 1896, consumers can use luminating gas at $1 and heating gas at 80 cents per thousand.

the policy adopted by the company at the outset.

After the 1st of January, when the further reduced rates take effect, the demand will be largely increased, and the probabilities are that a still further reduction in the net price can be made at some future time.

Mr. Ross does not think that the lowest possible point in the production of gas has yet been reached.

Mr. Dodd, President of the Missouri Electric Light Company, was asked what effect the reduction in the price of gas would have on the business of his company. The answer was to the effect that neither he nor the company had given the matter consideration. He knew of no reason why the price of electric light should be cheapened, and for aught he knows it will remain at the present figure.

The Sheriff arrived with his prisoner at 11:16 a. m., and with Steve McDonald and ii:10 a. m., and with Steve McDonaid and John Donaldson drove to Justice Kirk's office, where the preliminary legal formalities were gone through with. Corbett said:

"I am disgusted with Fitzsimmons' conduct. If he were here and subjected to the same annoyance and delay I would not care so much, but while my time, which ought to be used in training, is being taken up in this way, Fitzsimmons is loading around Corpus Christi, putting in time, when he is not playing cards, congratulating himself that I am getting the worst of it. I do not have to do this. I have nothing to gain in besting Fitzsimmons. I am champion, and he is a middle-weight with aspirations to my position. He has not even his forfeit money up, and has nothing to lose at all. Corbett is in excellent spirits except for the legal annoyance incident to making this test of laws, and the fact that he cannot put in the time training.

UNDER DIFFICULTIES

"Superba," Hanlon's Spectacular Pro-duction, Staged by Green Hands.

Hanlon Brothers' "Superba" has given most satisfactory embettons the conjunction this week, notwithstanding the many trais which have beset that company. When the show reached here last Sunday from Cincinnati the regular stage hands that travel with the production struck after depositing the scenery on the sidewalk. They were forced into the action by the local organization of the American Federation of Labor, these hands belonging to a union that is governed by the American Federation of Labor.

Things would have gone badly with the Hanlons' show had not the Knights of Laborrushed to the rescue. They furnished the men necessary to stage and move the scenery. Being new to this particular production and its many contrivances and trick scenery, they did not do the work as well as the trained hands, but the performance was satisfactory. In some trying moments members of the company helped with the work. Proprietor William Hanlon discharged all his old men when they refused to work, but it is understood an agreement was arrived at last night with the result that they have all gone back to work.

A CITY OF RUINS.

Measures of Relief for Sufferers by the La Paz Hurricane.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 18.-Finance Min dister Limantour addressed the Chamber of Deputies advocating a resolution for relief of La Paz, Lower California, sufferers. The Minister said he appeared before Congress at the request of President Diaz and said the details which only had just been received by the arguitive describe the situaat the request of President Dias and said the details which only had just been received by the executive, describe the situation of victims in most sombre colors. Fortunately the number of persons who lost their lives is not large, only four being so far reported; but there are persons missing, and it is not yet known whether they have been killed or whether they may still be alive, as the ruins of houses which once formed the city of La Pas have not yet been removed. The number injured and wounded is very large and their sufferings are great. With regard to material losses sustained, the situation could not have been worse. The fields have been completely destroyed, crops, orchards and trees have all disappeared, not a vestige remaining. The city of La Pas is a city of ruins; entire wards have ceased to exist; houses of the most solid construction have been levelled to the ground and only foundations built into the earth show where once they stood. Not one of the few buildings which escaped the fury of the elements have a roof; in fact, the city is destroyed, and our countrymen are homeless and without resources. Then there is fearful destruction and loss on the sea. Every ship in the bay, with one exception, was driven from its moorings and hurled against the shore, where merciless waves and terrible gales soon dashed them to pieces, and not one is in condition to be rescued and repaired.

The House passed the measure unanimously and sent it to the Senate.
